Monday evening, May 30, about sixty Walther Leaguers and friends met in the basement of Redeemer Lutheran Church for a surprise party for Rev. E.B. Fox, the occasion being his birthday.

To make the event a complete surprise the play cast met for practice and as Karl Reese could not be present Rev. Fox was called to direct. When the rehearsal started the rest of the group came in singing "Happy Birthday to You."

The evening was spent in some lively games and a tasty lunch was served, topped off by a huge birthday cake complete with candles. After a short speech in which Rev. Fox thanked the League and expressed hope it would continue to grow as it had in the past, he was presented with a purse of money.

W.M.S. Rally at The Knox United Church

Fifty-one members of the Red Deer Presbyterian Women's Missionary Society of the United Church of Canada registered at the opening of the rally held in Knox United Church, Didsbury, Friday, June 2, and the address of welcome to the visitors was given by Mrs. E. Mrs. Fay Nichol of Didsbury played the music for the devotional period.

CATCHES BIG TROUT

The Didsbury Fish and Game Association fish derby was given a boost on Friday, and a mark was set for local anglers to shoot at, when Ed Watkin weighed in a 34 lb. lock leaven trout which he caught on a fly in the Fallen Timber west of town. It was a lovely fish, and while other trout have been officially weighed in, Ed's fish is the largest entered so far in the fish derby.

Didsbury Flyers Win From Innisfail Team

The Didsbury Flyers played Innisfail at the latter's diamond on Friday evening, June 2. The game was a nine inning affair packed with thrills for the large crowd that assembled to cheer the ladies along. The Didsbury girls hit the ball hard and often to return home winners by a one-sided 30-11 score. Home runs were scored by Joy Folkman (2), and Marion Bagshaw for the Flyers, while Innisfail helped their cause by collecting two. The errors committed by both clubs added to the excitement.

When the girls played softball and the Didsbury team again came out on top, winning by a score of 14-3 at the end of the fifth.

After the softball games the hungry crowd had a picnic supper, with grasshoppers and ants for company. Later all returned home, triumphantly happy, but covered with much of the farmers' summer-fallow due to the prevailing winds.

GOLF NOTES

All greens have been trimmed and fairways cut, and new mats valued at $86 each have been purchased and are in use. New benches are situated at every tee box.

"Paid up members only" is the Club ruling for local play.

Marion Luft Wins Grand Championship for Beef Calf

Sixteen thousand dollars changed hands on Saturday, May 31, at Carstairs when the 67 calves belonging to members of the Junior Calf Clubs of West Didsbury, Olds, Jutland, Carstairs and Crossfield, were sold after the annual show.

Calves from each club were judged individually in the morning with the two best calves from each club being sent into the finals. Marion Luft of the West Didsbury Club won the Grand Champion of the show with her Hereford steer which weighed 920 pounds. This was sold jointly to Adams, Wood & Weiler and the Alberta Livestock Co-operative for 61 cents a pound.

The Reserve Champion was won by Mervin Hehr of Crossfield, which sold to P. Burns & Co. for 56 cents a pound.

Judges were W.H.T. Mead, Livestock Commissioner of Edmonton, and Howard Fulcher of the Department of Agriculture.

Judges in showmanship were A. E. Price, president of Alberta Hereford Association, and Hector McDonald, both of Crossfield.

Donald Robertson, also of the West Didsbury Club, won the grand champion showmanship award.

The average weight of the calves sold was 800 pounds, and the average price received was 31 2-3 cents a pound.

Individual winners in the clubs were:

Olds: 1st Marvin Peterson, 2nd Gordon Johnston.

Jutland: 1st Allan Brinson, 2nd Gordon Stiles; 3rd Norma Archer.

Crossfield: 1st Mervin Hehr; 2nd Bernard MacArthur.

Carstairs: 1st Billy Sheehan; 2nd Harold Schielke.

West Didsbury: 1st Marion Luft; 2nd Gordon Robertson.

Herefords predominated in the show and Hereford breeders presented first prize winners in each club with a silver mounted stock card, and second prize winners with a stock jackknife.

Archie Boyce of Olds and Tom Dench and John Riddle of Carstairs were the auctioneers. The Carstairs Board of Trade members did considerable work in preparing the arena for the show and in handling the clerking and other work connected with such a big sale of livestock.

The buyers complimented the club members on the top quality and finish on their calves, but issued two warnings: first, that there must be fewer heifer calves another year, and second, that the horns must be removed in the fall on all cattle to be fed for the calf club sales.

Prize Winners

The prizes offered at the Didsbury Merchants' Shopping Carnival have now all been claimed. Mrs. J. Foat having won the first prize and was she thrilled Monday when she discovered the winning ticket in her purse! She had previously overlooked the ticket when checking stubs after the announcement of the draw and no doubt would have been disappointed had she not discovered the winning ticket before the numbers of the second draw were to have been announced June 10th.

Other winners were: second Mrs. Geo. Watson, third Mrs. Jay Tuggle, fourth Jack Neufeld, and fifth Mrs. Wayne Stauffer.

Junior U.F.A. Plans Party at Westerdale

The Junior F.U.A. meeting was held at Phyllis Jackson's home on June 2 with nine members present. Roll call was answered with "what you think would be a good roll call." Due to the absence of the president and vice-president, Patsy Buckley was elected to take the chair. There was no correspondence and during the business session it was decided to have a party at the hall for the three delegates, Robert Jackson, Richard Philp and Edwin Jackson, who went to Edmonton to the Farm Young Peoples' Week to give them an opportunity to report on their trip. The girls of the Local will send out invitations and arrange for the entertainment and lunch.
